Above The Sun publishes a full list of the prize-winners in its great popularity contest which was brought to a successful conclusion at 9 o'clock Saturday night. The count was finished and the result announced at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

At 9 o'clock this morning the ballots and all other records were brought from the bank vaults, where they were placed for safe-keeping Saturday night, and turned over to the judges, who went immediately to work. Using three adding machines the thousands of ballots cast in the mammoth contest were all counted, checked over and the result announced.

The judges are Solon L. Palmer, cashier of the Bank of Benton; L. L. Bebout and Dows Browning, of Paducah; W. E. Warr, publisher of the Massac County Journal, Republican and T. B. Dudley, publisher of the Ballard Yeoman, of Wickliffe.

A. H. CAMERON OF DETROIT CALLED TO FIRST CHURCH

Presbyterians Unanimously Choose Him at Congregational Meeting.

Beautiful Song Service at Broadway Methodist

EXCELLENT SUNDAY SERVICES

At the congregational meeting of the First Presbyterian church yesterday, an unanimous call was extended to the Rev. Angus H. Cameron, of the West Boulevard Presbyterian church, Detroit, and a committee of elders was appointed to present the call before the Paducah Presbytery and the Presbytery at Detroit, under which Mr. Cameron's pastorate is held. It is believed he will accept and come here about September 1.

Mr. Cameron is a Nova Scotian and preached here Sunday, August 1, making a very favorable impression both as a pulpit orator and as a man. He has been successful, and probably could not be induced to leave his present charge, but for the fact that his wife is not able to stand the rigorous winter climate of Michigan.

Dr. Thomas Cummins, of the First Church of Henderson, was moderator of the meeting yesterday and preached a sermon apropos to the meeting. He took his text from the incident in Paul's missionary career in which he heard the call to go into Macedonia and Dr. Cummins showed how that the hand of Providence is guiding and directing church affairs, and from the contest explained how Paul and his company "assuredly gathered" that God was directing them.

Messrs. H. S. Blum, of Nashville, and Richard Scott sang solos, and Miss Sarah Rogers and Mr. Emmett Bagby a duet, in addition to the regular choir program.

Beautiful Song Service.
At the Broadway Methodist church last night a beautiful song service arranged by Mrs. S. H. Winstead was presented to a large congregation. The soloists were Misses Mabel Shelton, Sarah Rogers and Lucette Soule, and Messrs. H. S. Blum, of Nashville, and Richard Scott, Mr. Harry Gilbert presided at the organ and rendered two instrumental solos. Dr. G. T. Sullivan preached a short sermon on praise.

Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian.
The Rev. A. J. Thomson, of Kuttawa, preached two excellent sermons at the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church yesterday. In the morning he preached on the "Prodigal Son, taking an unique viewpoint of the parable. His text was: "When he came to himself." Dr.

REPUBLICANS IN THIS STATE FOR CENSUS TAKERS

Beverly, Mass., Aug. 9. (Special.)—President Taft announced that census appointments in Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina and Missouri be all Republicans. Some Democrats are to come from other southern states.

CAPTAIN S. K. HALE IS IMPROVING RAPIDLY.
Capt. S. K. Hale, captain of the steamer Kentucky, who sustained a fracture of the hip at Johnsonville, Tenn., several weeks ago, is rapidly improving and is able to be about at his home with the aid of crutches. He will not be able to resume his duties on the Kentucky for about three weeks.

SEARCHING COAST.
Cape Town, Aug. 9.—Believing that some of the passengers and crew of the steamer Waratah, thought to be sunk on the trip from Durban by the cyclone, might have escaped to shore and were starving or in danger from natives orders were issued today to search the coast for 200 miles. More than 200 men were aboard besides 200 others.

OHIO RECEIVES WELCOME IN PORT FROM ALL CRAFT

With salutes from all steamboats in the local harbor, the Ohio steamed in port this morning at 11 o'clock on her initial trip in the Paducah and Golconda trade, replacing the Royal. She moved gracefully and attractively much attention at the wharfbord today, many people going on board to admire her. She is 125 feet in length with a 26 foot beam and can make 10 miles up stream and 14 down. She was recently launched at Marietta, O., shipyards, being built at a cost of $15,000. The Ohio is a neat boat and adequate for the trade which she is now engaged. She is much smaller than the George Cowling.

She departed this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Yesterday afternoon she ran an excursion out of Golconda 11 miles up the river, carrying a large crowd. She is neatly fitted up and has a comfortable cabin. The management has provided music. Leaving Golconda about one hour late, she made good time here this morning. She will return tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Capt. Fred McCandless is very proud of her.

ASSAULTED AND BURIED IN CEMETARY

Rochester, Aug. 9.—A baffling murder mystery was unearthed here today when the body of Anna Schumacher, 17 years old, missing since Saturday, was found in a lonely spot in the Holy Sepulcher cemetery, beaten to death with a heavy stone and assaulted before her death. She visited the cemetery Saturday morning and in a lonely spot was attacked by unknown assailants. There are signs of a struggle near the place where she was attacked. The body was found this morning. The murderer, after killing her, dug a shallow grave and placed the body in it to conceal the crime. Earth and brush covered the corpse when it was found. The appearance was horrifying. On her head was a large stone. Her face was battered, as were the body and limbs. As soon as she was found sheriff's officers and the Rochester police were on the track. The body is in the morgue, an autopsy showing an assault before death. Several other recent assaults in the cemetery are believed to be by a gang of rowdies.

Peace is Certain

Chicago, Aug. 9.—President Buckley, of one of the divisions of the employees' union, said today peace is certain and a uniform wage scale of all lines, making future peace certain.

PRESIDENT GETS TO WORK EARLY AND THEN TO PLAY

Beverly, Mass., Aug. 9.—President Taft got to work today at the Evans cottage, the summer white house for seven months. With Secretary Carpenter he started on a large bundle of correspondence. After hearing a number of letters read dictating more and signing different papers he started for Essex Country Golf club links, where he will play today with W. K. Bordenman, John Hays Hammond and his son, Robert. This afternoon he will take an auto ride with Mrs. Taft.

MEN ACCUSED OF MARDIS RAID SET FREE IN CALLOWAY

Ruling of Judge Makes it Impossible to Successfully Prosecute.

Other Cases Are Called For Trial Today.

POLITICS IS GETTING WARM

Murray, Ky., Aug. 9. (Special.)—On account of a ruling of Circuit Judge Cook, it became necessary Saturday to dismiss the indictments against the alleged night riders in what is known here as the Frank Mardis raid. There were 13, including Magistrate Tom Jones and Ed Thompson. This was necessary, as his construction of a decision of the court of appeals in the Jake Ellis case prevented the commonwealth's attorney getting certain evidence before the jury. It is now a question as to whether the present grand jury will indict.

The jury having the Wayne Lawrence case brought in a verdict Saturday afternoon giving Lawrence two years in the penitentiary. Lawrence killed Andy Banister at a church near Backsburg in July, 1908. In the fight Lawrence was stabbed twice over the heart, but recovered. Banister was shot and died ten days afterwards. The trouble came up over the objections of Banister to Lawrence's going with his daughter. The case attracted wide interest in the county. Lawrence was defended by Coleman & Linn, of Murray, and Pete Sear, of Mayfield. The prosecution was ably assisted by Speight & Acre. Both Speight and Commonwealth's Attorney Smith made powerful arguments.

Calloway Politics.
The political pot is beginning to simmer in "Old Calloway," and ere long may reach the boiling point.

Jack Hanberry was here last week looking after his political fences. However, little interest is being manifested so far in the judicial race, as the Republicans will not nominate candidates for circuit judge and commonwealth's attorney until August 17.

At present interest seems chiefly centered in the county races. The Republicans have nominated candidates for county judge, sheriff and jailer. Judge T. W. Patterson, who was appointed by Governor Willson to fill out the unexpired term of Judge Wells, is opposing E. P. Phillips, the Democratic nominee. Patterson has made a satisfactory official to all parties alike, and in his public capacity has known no "faction" or set of men. His official course has been absolutely above criticism, and there is a strong disposition to endorse him in November.

The race between Phillips and Patterson presents a peculiar condition. In that it places Phillips at a great disadvantage in asking the solid support of his party. In the judicial

Pure Food Experts Inspecting The Dairies

Paducah's milk supply was pronounced in good condition by B. F. Scherffus, inspector and Davis Buckner, chemist, of the food department of the state experimental station at Lexington. These two state food officials with Dr. Ed P. Farley, city milk, meat and live stock inspector and Dr. H. P. Sights, city health officer, have completed a week's work in the city, and found things in good shape generally. The state officials had words of praise for Paducah's officials and the results they have accomplished and their plans for the future improvement of the dairies. The dairies of Paducah are not perfect, but in comparison with the milk supplies with other cities in the state rank high.

Without the blare of trumpets the two officials arrived in Paducah and began their work, which was done more carefully than usual. For the first time samples of milk were taken from almost every dairy in the city. The inspectors would stop a wagon on the street, purchase a bottle of milk, like a customer and test it. By this method a fair estimate of the condition of dairies was found, as almost every dairyman had sold an inspector a bottle of milk before the milk dealer learned the inspectors were in the city. The dairy buildings were inspected also, and a general improvement since the last investigation was noted.

Mrs. Loeb Better
Mrs. R. Loeb, of Fountain avenue and Broadway, who sustained a stroke of paralysis Friday morning, is improving. Her right side is affected.

ORDER FOR LOCOMOTIVES FROM HILL'S RAILROADS
Philadelphia, Aug. 9.—An order for 57 locomotives, costing $1,000,000, was received by the Baldwin Locomotive Works from the James J. Hill railroads in the west. It will give employment to many machinists, laborers and others laid off during the business depression.

THE ALTERNATIVE.
Chicago, Aug. 9.—In an effort to prevent the street car being hit by a train at a crossing, an attendant threw the switch, causing a collision between two cars. Twenty-five were injured, none fatally, whereas many surely would have been killed if hit by the train.

race between Cook and Bush a few years back Phillips was an ardent supporter of Judge Bush in the primary, and when Cook was nominated he was a strong supporter of James Breathitt, the Republican nominee. It is common talk that he will be asked to take a dose of his own medicine in November.

Phillips is the law partner of Zeb Stewart, who is accused by some of his own party by virtue of his position as a member of the county committee of having practically disfranchised 2,000 Democrats in the reorganization of the county Democratic committee some time ago. There is great dissatisfaction among Democrats in general, and though this county is normally Democratic, it has a large independent vote, and has several times rebuked the irregularities of "ring Democrats."

The races for sheriff and jailer are also interesting. Walter Holland, the Democratic nominee for sheriff, also supported James Breathitt for judge against Cook, the Democratic nominee. This was done, however, on personal grounds.

Holland is opposed by Charley Jordan, a former prominent business man, of the west side of the county, and at present in the insurance business.

Jordan will make great inroads on the west side Democratic vote, as that is considered the stronghold of Democracy in this county.

"Jolly Dick" Langston, as everybody knows, is popular everywhere. There are about 900 Republican votes in this county, and nearly every one of them will vote for Patterson, Jordan and Langston, and when one adds to this vote some 1,200 dissatisfied and disfranchised Democrats one can understand why certain Democratic nominees are on the "anxious seat."

Mrs. Castle Not Prosecuted.
New York Aug. 9.—It is believed Mrs. Castle, who shot Craig, will never be tried. At a conference between her brother, Captain Scott Magistrate Butts and Craig it was decided to postpone the case. Craig says he will not prosecute if disliking further notoriety.

NO DANGER FELT OF MOB VIOLENCE AT MADISONVILLE

Madisonville, Ky., Aug. 9. (Special.)—There is no danger of a lynching as the result of the murder of his wife by Roland Rich. Citizens will allow the law to take its course. The prisoner was not removed from Madisonville.

One More Sub-Station.
In regard to the establishment of new sub-stations, Mr. Fisher was granted one more for Paducah and he said it was lucky to get it on account of the postoffice department giving out little at present. It will be located either in the west or north end of the city. This is to be decided later.

All the old bids for the improvements at the local postoffice have been rejected and new ones will be resubmitted, including the gable for the postoffice. This stipulation was omitted in the first bid. The new specifications will give local contractors a chance to get in bids and Mr. Fisher is anxious that they have a chance at the job, which will amount to about $15,000.

Saw the Tariff Bill Signed.
Postmaster Fisher witnessed the signing of the tariff bill by President Taft and has the distinction of being the only private citizen to see this done. Only senators and members of the cabinet are allowed to be present, but Mr. Fisher was in company with Frank Hitchcock, post master general, enjoyed this rare opportunity.

The flights of the Wright Bros' aeroplane was a pleasing opportunity to Mr. Fisher and he was surprised at the simplicity of the construction. Mr. Fisher returned early Sunday morning.

Electric lights, fed by a storage battery, have been installed in a new London ambulance.

PRESIDENT MAY COME TO THIS CITY

TELLS POSTMASTER F. M. FISHER HE WOULD LIKE TO VISIT PADUCAH.

SENATOR PILES, OF WASHINGTON, URGES CITY TO EXTEND INVITATION

President Taft may visit Paducah in October, if the right sort of organization is formed here to invite him and an excuse is offered the president for pausing here on his Mississippi trip. President Taft told Postmaster Fisher, while the latter was in Washington, that he would be glad to come to Paducah, and Senator Piles, of Washington, a member of the waterways commission and a former Paducahan, told Mr. Fisher he is anxious that Paducah invite the commission to come here. The commission with the president and scores of congressmen and senators will go down the Mississippi from St. Louis to New Orleans to attend the waterways congress in October. It would be of great benefit to the interests of the Ohio river if the flotilla could be brought up this far and with the president and Senator Piles parties to the conspiracy to make this point on the trip down, it might not be difficult for citizens to secure the visit. However delay would be fatal, as the program is being made up.

West Kentucky in Office.
"Western Kentucky is at present represented more than ever before in state affairs," said Postmaster Frank M. Fisher this morning, "and it is just as it should be."

Mr. Fisher is just back from a ten days' trip to Washington, D. C., New York city and Frankfort, where he has been strictly on business. He was pleased to say that Hon. J. C. Speight, of Mayfield, candidate for the office of United States district attorney, is rapidly forging to the front and will be appointed beyond any doubt. The incumbent, George DuRelle, will hold the position until June, when the next appointment will be made. Mr. Fisher is almost assured that Mr. Speight will receive the appointment.

The advance of west Kentucky is pleasing Mr. Fisher, who spoke enthusiastically over the conditions. Judge A. J. G. Wells, of Murray, was recently appointed by Governor Willson as a member of the board of control. Other officials at Frankfort are George McBroom, Ed. Farley, Judge Breathitt, Wade Brown, Thomas McGreggor, Ed. Thomas, of Mayfield, in the board of equalization and others. Mr. Fisher said that Lawrence Reno, of Owensboro, is mentioned as collector for this district and will doubtless be appointed.

Dr. Jones, of Princeton, is a sure winner of the office of census enumerator for this district according to Postmaster Fisher.

Knights of Columbus Pilgrimage.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 9.—Fifty delegates en route to their various homes from the national convention of the Knights of Columbus, which has just adjourned at Mobile, registered last night at the Louisville hotel to rest after one of the most extensive and unique excursions ever made to a convention. The party was made up of delegates from New York, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, and Canada, and made the trip to the Mobile convention in charge of a tourist company of Boston by water, and are returning by rail.

When the party, including over a hundred delegates from the New England states, left their homes they left with the intention of taking in a sightseeing trip and enjoying a general good time, as well as attending to their duties at the convention. They left New York on the chartered steamer Comus on July 28, and reached New Orleans August 2, and the next day were in Mobile, to which place they went by rail. They are returning home by rail, and it is their purpose to stop at all of the places of interest on the return trip.

They arrived at Mammoth Cave Friday morning and took in the sights, and came to Louisville last night. The entire delegation will leave here today at noon, and make several other stops before they reach their destination. The rest of the party, including over fifty delegates, will return to New York by water. So glowing have been the reports of the pleasure and success of the trip by water to New Orleans that a pilgrimage was planned at the convention in Mobile, by the original incorporators, for next August to Genoa, the birthplace of Columbus, for whom the order was named. The details of the trip have not yet been completed, but it is to include a special audience with the pope of Rome and a special rendition of the Passion Play. The party is to be made up of Knights of Columbus from all over the country, and it is said that this pilgrimage is to be the biggest undertaking of its kind in history.

American Cities Waste Water.
It appears from facts collected by Allen Hagen that the amount of water consumed in American cities is enormously greater than that consumed in English cities. Yet our great towns are continually enlarging their supplies. New York consumes 129 gallons daily per inhabitant; Boston, 151 gallons; Chicago, 190 gallons; and Pittsburgh, 250 gallons per head. Yet London and Liverpool are not reputed to be dirty cities, but rather the contrary. Mr. Hagen thinks that probably half the water supplied to American cities—there are ten of these cities where the demand exceeds 100 gallons per head—is wasted, and some English authorities appear to agree with him. —Youth's Companion.

INDEPENDENTS BEAT BROOKPORT

ILLINOIS LADS PUT TWO MEN IN THE BOX.

Wallersteins Win Hard Fought Game From the B. B. Hooks.

AT LEAGUE PARK GROUNDS

The Independent team of Paducah used the mop good and heavy yesterday afternoon on the Brookport team over on the Illinois soil by a score of 15 to 2. Brookport tried two twirlers but the second man in the box for them was better than the first for the Independents and they piled up score after score until the Illinois boys wore a sad look. The feature of the game was the pitching of McChesney for the Independents. He held the Illinois bunch down so bad until the locals felt sorry and put in Taylor to give them a chance. They failed to rally.

McChesney struck out about 12 men and Block worked in his usual good style behind the bat. For the Brookport team Rush pitched the first six innings and was replaced by Raimeyer. Taylor twirled the last two innings for the Paducah boys. What should have been a home run was the three base hit of Henneberger for the locals. He struck out a long drive and crossed three bases. Thinking he could make it home and ran and slid for the plate, but he failed to get up enough momentum and stopped within two feet of it. He was tagged out before he could recover himself. Williams did good work with the suplin as did all the rest of the local players to credit to themselves.

The Independents were accompanied to Brookport by a delegation of about 60 rooters. There was a crowd of about 500 at the game, including about 200 women. The Independents are figuring for a game with Benton for next Sunday and will try to get the club to come to Paducah for the game. If they will not the Independents will probably go to Dawson Springs for a game with the team of that place.

The line-ups yesterday were:
Independents—Catcher, Block; P. McChesney; 1b, Taylor; 2b, Goodman; ss, Robertson; 3b, Cooper; lf, Williams; cf, Murray; rf, Henneberger.

Brookport—Catcher, Doyle; P. Rush; 1b, Smith; 2b, Woodworth; ss, Raimeyer; 3b, Stevenson; lf, Johnson; cf, Busby; rf, Corlock.

Wallersteins Win.

After having the game cinched up until the ninth inning, the B. B. Hook baseball team lost to the Wallersteins boys yesterday afternoon at League park through the weakening of their pitcher, Hilke. The score resulted 8 to 4. Hilke held down the Wallersteins bunch in good form until the final inning when he became dizzy from the intense heat and barely managed to play out the game. Mercer, third baseman for the Wallersteins, became overheated in the eighth inning and had to be taken off the field. Features of the game was the hitting of both sides. Hilke struck out six and Hofflich for the Wallersteins struck out nine. The Wallersteins ran in two men in the first inning and the next five innings resulted in goose eggs for both teams. The Hooks placed two men over the plate in the seventh and two more in the eighth. It looked like the Hooks had the game but Hilke went up in the air and was battered to pieces, allowing six of the Wallersteins to come in home.

The score: R H E
Wallersteins ..... 8 15 4
Hooks ..... 4 11 4
By innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
B. B. Hooks ..... 0 0 0 0 0 2 2 0

Following were the line-ups: Wallersteins—Mercer, 3b; Ford, cf; Rynnian, 2b; Elliot, rf; Acree, ss; Hessian, 1b; Buck, lf; Mercer, cf; Hofflich, p.

Following were the players for the Hooks—Gallagher, Harper, Parady, Carroll, Monroe, Dean, McGee, Helwig, Hilke.

Council umpired. The game was attended by about 400 fans.

PROBABLE MURDER

FOUND DESPERATELY WOUNDED AND UNCONSCIOUS.

Husband Under Arrest—Had Beaten Her Cruelly Many Times—She Appealed to Friends.

Cairo, Ill., Aug. 9.—A mysterious assault, which may turn out to be a murder, was reported to the police early yesterday morning by Henry Salzman, a photographer at 1603 Commercial avenue, the victim being Salzman's wife, Mrs. Mary Salzman. The husband's story was that Mrs. Salzman had been assaulted by some one at her home, 210 Sixteenth street, during his absence. The police went to the house and found the woman in an unconscious state, lying on a pallet made on the floor. She was bleeding from a wound on the side of her head made by some blunt instrument, which had cut through her ear and into the scalp behind the ear, also fractured or indented the skull. The circumstances and what they heard from neighbors led Chief Egan to believe that Salzman himself might have been the assailant and he ordered Salzman to be held in jail pending further developments.

IS GRANTED DIVORCE.

Wife of Foxhall P. Keene, Millionaire Turfman, Abandoned.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 9.—It developed today that a decree of absolute divorce was granted in the Fayette county court here on July 3 to Mrs. Mary Lawrence Keene from Foxhall P. Keene, the New York millionaire turfman the grounds being abandonment. About a year ago Keene came to the Castleton stock farm here and established a residence, and later entered suit for divorce. Mrs. Keene entered her appearance and afterwards filed a petition alleging abandonment. Proof was taken entirely by deposition, local attorneys representing both parties.

VOODOO RITES CATTLE KILLED

MEXICAN POPULATION OF SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS.

Wave of Superstition—Rites Date Back to Ancient Aztec Religion—Cows Found Slain.

HIDES AND HEARTS REMOVED

San Antonio, Tex., Aug. 9.—An outbreak of voodooism is responsible for the mysterious killing of many fine cows in the vicinity of this city. Many owners of cattle living in the suburbs have looked in vain for their milk purveyors in the morning. The gentle friend of the family was found to be missing, and the instituted search generally disclosed her body at the chapparal. G. A. Davis, of this city, was one of the first to miss his valuable Jersey in this manner, and then others have sustained similar losses.

The odd feature of the case was that nothing but the hide and the heart of the animal were missing. At first it was thought that the animals had been killed for their skins, but a close watch kept over the dealers in hides has shown that so far none of the hides have been disposed of. Sheriff Lindsey and his deputies have been working day and night to get a clew that might lead to a complete solution of the mystery, but so far they have not been successful. The offer of a substantial reward has now been called to their aid.

Though the Mexican population of San Antonio is a very orderly and law abiding one as a whole, there is enough of an indifferent element among them that could not be averse to committing those depredations if spurred on by what they would consider a religious motive. As is well known, the Indian strain is very prominent in the lower class of Mexicans. As a matter of fact, in a large percentage of them the Spanish or other Aryan blood is a negligible quantity. That some of the old Indian superstitions should have survived in them and be liable to periodical outbreaks is therefore not to be wondered at.

Old Aztec Rites.

Indian voodooism as practiced after the fall of the Aztec empire, is really nothing more than a continuation of the old Aztec religion, the principal feature of which was human sacrifice. The victims of the old Aztec priests suffered death by having their hearts torn out of their bodies by main force. After the Spanish had succeeded in stamping out this barbarous practice the Indian tribes, still adhering to the faith of their fathers though nominally Christians, took to sacrificing animals in the same manner that human beings had formerly been sacrificed, and, like all primitive people, thought to appease their gods best by sacrificing that which was considered most cherished. In tearing out the animal's heart the object today is to get possession of the blood contained in it. To this fluid are ascribed a number of miraculous properties of a disease-combating nature.

The authorities of this city and county are in no mood to permit as noxious a practice as voodooism to flourish under their very noses. Though a number of arrests have been made, more important clues are now being followed, and further developments are anticipated as a result of the reward offered. Of all people the low class Mexican is the least able to withstand the lure of money.

PETROSINO'S SLAYER?

Postoffice Inspectors Believe They Have Man.

Washington, Aug. 9.—Postoffice Inspector J. F. Oldfield, who has been rounding up members of the black hand in Ohio, believes that two of the Italians captured in the raid last June may be implicated in the assassination of Joseph Petrosino, lieutenant of the New York police, the Palermo, Italy, March 12 last.

Oldfield said today he and other inspectors on the case have unearthed a mass of evidence of the most remarkable sort showing the close connection of the black hand of the middle west with that in Italy; exhibiting the workings of the order here and abroad and giving probably the most comprehensive view of the machinations of the Sicilian criminals that any sleuth have ever obtained.

BRISTOL WETS WIN CONTEST.

Judge Kelly Held That "Drys" Had No Standing in Court.

Bristol, Tenn., Aug. 9.—Judge Kelly rendered a sweeping decision, which hadly leaves the drys a leg to stand on, in the local option election test they have been prosecuting here.

In an opinion of some twenty-five closely typewritten pages Judge Kelly holds that the drys cannot go into the question of the alleged payment of the poll taxes of voters by the wets. He says that they had two remedies for the alleged fraud before the election, and as they knew as much then as they did afterward and then failed to avail themselves of every remedy, they cannot now come into court and assail the correctness of the treasurer's list of persons who personally paid their poll taxes, as required by law.

He says the court must now presume that all of the officers of the election, as well as the treasurer and clerk, did their duties and evidence can not now be introduced to controvert that presumption.

The decision is pronounced by law.

yers here as a fine document, from a legal standpoint.

The drys have one ground upon which they can proceed, but it is not believed that they will do so after losing the corner stone of their case. Judge Kelly will be asked to grant liquor licenses next week.

What Happened?

The drys have one ground upon which they can proceed, but it is not believed that they will do so after losing the corner stone of their case.

"Tell me what you wished?" she demanded.

"Tell me what you wished?" he countered.

"Well—I will if you will."

"I hate to do it—it might not come true."

"But, maybe it would. Now, you promised, you know."

"Well, I—er—wished you'd let me kiss you. Now, what did you wish?"

"Well—I wished you'd get your wish!"—Cleveland Leader.

BIG SECURITIES HAWKED ABOUT

WINDSOR TRUST COMPANY IS INVOLVED.

Matter is Reported to District Attorney By Well-Known Wall Street Broker—Promises

TO GO TO THE BOTTOM OF IT

New York, Aug. 9.—An investigation of alleged irregularities in connection with a $50,000 loan on securities valued at $100,000, begun by Assistant District Attorney H. T. Marshall, was attended with great activity about the district attorney's office and specialized by unusual precautions to preserve secrecy.

The name of the Windsor Trust company, one of the foremost financial institutions of the city, entered into the investigations and was reported in leaks in the chamber, where the investigation was in progress, that the trust company had loaned the $50,000 in question and was a party to the investigation.

Interest was aroused by the appearance of F. Augustus Helme, the copper operator, as a witness before Assistant District Attorney Marshall.

According to report, a man well known in Wall street wished to negotiate a loan for $50,000. He found that he could obtain the loan by depositing as collateral security $100,000 worth of stocks and by paying 6 per cent interest.

Mystery of Affair.

One of the provisions in the transaction was that the security deposited could be redeemed and the loan cancelled at any time by payment of the amount borrowed plus interest at 6 per cent for a year.

Here is where the mystery which the district attorney's office is endeavoring to clear up comes in. The borrower heard that the stock he thought safely deposited in the strong box of the lender was being hawked about in Wall street, and as the stock was easily identified and was held by him under certain conditions, its release immediately attracted attention.

To get back his stock the borrower either tendered the amount of the loan and the interest to the lender and was unable to obtain his securities or else called the district attorney's attention to the alleged disposition of his securities in violation of the agreement covering the loan in an endeavor to have the stock withdrawn from the market.

PLEA FOR BEAN IS BEING MADE

INDIANS OBJECT TO CRUSADE AGAINST MISCAL.

Nebraska Tribe Says It Is Part of Its Religion—Has Worked Big Reforms.

DR. WYLIE TO INVESTIGATE

Since the government began its campaign against the use of the mescal bean by the Indians, no tribe has felt so much aggrieved as the Winnebagoes, who live in Tauraton county, Neb., just across the Missouri river from Sioux City, and they have been appealing to the Indian commissioner and their congressman J. P. Latta, for a repeal of the embargo, which has been laid against the sale of this narcotic, says the Washington Times.

The Winnebagoes have made the mescal bean a part of their religion. To them it is even a portion of Christ's body. With the mescal bean in their mouths, the Winnebagoes declare they communicate directly with God himself, and they have been the missionaries to other tribes, carrying the gospel of the bean. To them this bean is holy, and it is holy only to the Indian, they declare. It has no effect on the white man, for God meant it for the Indian alone.

In a letter to Congressman J. P. Latta, Thomas Walker, a Winnebago of Decatur, Neb., explained the attitude of his tribe toward this bean as follows:

"We have found out by actual experience this mescal eating of the Indian is really and truly religious. We believe that God sent this medicine to the Indian, and no one else, and that He gave this medicine to the Indian for pure and righteousness sake that the Indian should eat and be right and wise toward God. Therefore, since we have eat of the medicine we have improved a great deal in improving our home, taking care of it, and being kind to one another. This we have never done before. This reservation was in a terrible state when the medicine came; killing, fighting, gambling and drunkenness existed. Now everybody is peaceful and quiet. This year everybody seems to want to get ahead of one another in farming."

Congressman's Idea. Congressman Latta does not believe the effects of the mescal eating are as bad as the Indian bureau experts have reported. He declares that the order on the reservation has become marvelously better in the past few years since the Winnebagoes have had this bean. He has noted also that the sale of liquor to the Indians has decreased and drunkenness is on the wane.

The Indian bureau has asked Dr. Wylie to examine the mescal bean and make a report as to its deleterious influence—if such there is. It has been generally understood that the mescal bean should be classed the same as morphine, chloral, cocaine and other "dopes" which became so necessary and so harmful to their users.

The mescal bean comes from Texas and Mexico, and is not a bean at all but is the top of a peculiar kind of cactus. About forty miles east of Laredo, Mex., was the original home of this plant. The Carizozo Indians were the first users of the mescal bean or Peyote, as it is properly called. They used it in their dances. At the beginning of these festivals the Indians all sat around the fire and chewed the same bean or Peyote until they became fairly intoxicated with its narcotic influence.

Its Fame Spreads. The fame of these performances reached Oklahoma territory, and white men came down into Texas and carried the bean back to the Oklahoma Indians. The trade became brisk and every tribe in the United States became purchasers of the bean. Many used it simply as "dope," but the Winnebagoes attached to it a sacred element, and their missionaries have been active in spreading this idea wherever they have visited.

The principal source of the bean is now the little village of Los Ojuelos where fifteen families exist and do nothing but gather the tops of the Peyote cactus for shipment to Indian tribes. The plant grows wild and the villagers get $2.50 per thousand for gathering them.

If the government succeeds in suppressing the trade in the mescal bean declare the Winnebagoes, the old reign of drunkenness and crime will return to their reservation. They believe that God will leave their reservation where he has lived since the holy mescal came to them as a comfort and a revelation.

NEVER GO OUT.

Flames of a Buddhist Temple—Sicilian Fire of Vengeance.

In Islam is a fire that not only lasts for years, but has what have been aptly termed "lineal descendants." It is to be found in a Buddhist temple near Bangkok, where every fourth year, at a certain period the priests light a fresh fire in a big brazier. This flame is kept alive for four years and is in turn extinguished after supplying a brand to ignite its successor. Inasmuch as this practice has obtained for upward of two centuries the Buddhist fire of Bangkok is in a sense the oldest in the world.

Another long term fire is said to exist at Sarhad, Persia. This flame is a symbol of religious fervor and it is death to extinguish it; it has burned for 70 years. In explanation of this curious rite it is explained that the Persians, rigid Mohammedans and regarding their former fire worshipping faith with detestation, nevertheless suffer the Sarhad flame to continue to display their gratitude for a service rendered a high official of the Persian government many years ago. At that time, it is said, a pious Parsee, who had come to trade at Sarhad was the happy means of saving the grand vizier from assassination. So the grateful shah of that day ordered that the fire lighted by the Parsee should be kept alive indefinitely.

There are some regions of the earth, like those inhabited by the Esquimaux, where the motive for retaining fires for long periods lies in the great difficulty of obtaining means for lighting new ones. One traveler reports seeing a fire in Lapland that had not been extinguished during seven years. It had been carried from place to place in an old ship's bucket.

The keeping up of fires for years at a time is said to be sometimes an incident of a Sicilian vendetta. The wronged individual when lighting his "fire of vengeance" is said to take solemn oath that it shall not be extinguished until his thirst for revenge shall have been satisfied by the death of the offending person. There is on record a trial in Palermo wherein it was shown that the accused, charged with murder, had kept his kitchen fire alight for five years.—Tit-Bits.

FIVE ON TARIFF BOARD.

President May Increase Number of Experts.

Washington, Aug. 9.—It was said authoritatively at the treasury department that the board of tariff experts to be appointed by the president in accordance with a provision of the new tariff law might consist of five men, instead of three.

It was pointed out that the number was discretionary with President Taft.

Thus far it can be said absolutely no member of the board has been selected.

Secretary MacVeagh, of the treasury department, is giving consideration to the appointees, and expects to confer with the president on the matter in the near future.

It is reasonably certain that the board will be named before the president starts on his intercontinental trip in September.

Daily Thought.

Think only of yourself and others will forget you.

Although all the blue laws were blocked, a hooche-cooche ordinance seems to have wriggled through the Chicago council.

The Lexington Herald and Kentucky Gazette both express regret over the decision of Judge Parker, ousting the mayor and city officials of Lexington.

The report that Miss Elkins has royal blood in her veins makes possible her union with Abruzzi. We are all more or less descendants of Irish kings over here.

John T. McCutcheon, cartoonist of the Chicago Tribune, has sailed for Africa. He may find the African lions won't stand for as much fun being poked at them as some of our own lions have.

WARE OF TYPHOID.

This is the season of typhoid fever, and surrounding cities are suffering with what threatens to be an epidemic of the disease. There are a few cases in Paducah, and the health department, ever ready to take preventive measures, calls upon all citizens to heed requests from the health officer, to save themselves from this most destructive of diseases. Organic matter is the prolific source of the germs of the disease, which are picked up on the feet of flies and carried into the house these cool nights. No better breeding place for the germs can be found than the garbage can. Dr. H. P. Sights, especially requests citizens to burn their garbage from now until the frost kills the flies. The germs breed in the refuse from the table and the flies, which swarm around the garbage, take up the germs on their feet. If this source is cut off, it will go a long way toward saving Paducah from the stigma of an epidemic, and will save many lives.

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE BUSINESS.

The position of poor Hiram Smedley contains many a lesson for people and politicians; but none more forcible than the danger of that human impulse to vote for the good fellow, regardless of his moral fitness and competency. In that way we get thieves into office, and discourage honesty in political aspirants. We must learn that nothing will prevent stealing but common honesty. Our safeguards, if properly applied, may catch the thief quickly and insure his punishment; but we must not put all our dependence on prevention through fear. Good character is much better.

When two men are candidates for office, one a "good fellow" and the other a good citizen, we are prone to help the good fellow along by putting him in an important office, where he can handle our taxes. Then we complain about a high rate and public extravagance, and abuse the whole system of government. More-over young fellows, growing up and entertaining an ambition for office, observe the kind of men, who succeed in politics, and cultivate the sort of virtue that is most valuable in winning votes. That virtue is being "all things to all men"; a disingenuous smile, a warm handclasp, habits that will make no one's conscience uneasy by example, a lack of qualities that awaken envy and a not too serious view of life. Now, we would not for a moment detract from the Christian virtues of a pleasant smile and warm handclasp; but we must remember that some men are too preoccupied and engrossed in meditation on serious things to cultivate the habit until the smile and the handclasp come automatically, and frequently the best equipped men to handle the public business are the least affable. We do not look for a winning smile and a warm handclasp in choosing men to handle our private affairs. If we consider these more essential than ability and honesty in public affairs, we must not complain if the public officials steal and the public business is not carried on the way our private business is.

STATE PRESS.

Sanitation in Kentucky.

"Sanitary Condition and Needs of Kentucky," is the title of a 42-page report by Mrs. Charles Bartlett-Crane of Kalamazoo, Mich., published in the August number of the Kentucky Medical Journal, edited by Dr. J. A. McCormick, of Bowling Green.

In an editorial reviewing her work the Medical Journal says:

"It was a matter of regret to all having charge of the work especially after she had shown her power to move people, that Mrs. Crane could not be sent to every county in Kentucky. As this could not be done twelve cities and towns were carefully selected, representing as far as possible every type as to population, water supply, drainage, dairies, slaughter houses and other conditions affecting health and life. As some of these conditions she describes and criticizes in the various cities and towns have their counterpart in every community, rural and urban, health boards, civic leagues and similar organizations can easily utilize them in working out their own problems."

"Messages of warm commendation and reports of prompt results following her meetings are still coming in."

The Reason Why.

The Paducah Sun wonders why it is that if Col. W. B. Haldeman still cherishes an ambition for civic honors he does not acquaint himself with conditions outside Louisville and cut loose from Whallen and Kohn. That's easy. You can't teach an old dog new tricks.—Owensboro Inquirer.

SOME STORIES AROUND TOWN

Mr. Robert Reeves, president of the First National bank has received a $10,000 bill from the assistant treasurer of the United States. It is probably the first note of this denomination ever seen in this city. It is useless unless endorsed by the bank to which it is issued.

E. T. Wetherington, who was press man on The Sun, when the office was on Broadway, is in the city visiting his mother, Mrs. D. Wetherington, of Clay street. Mrs. Wetherington has been quite ill, but is improving. Mr. Wetherington visited The Sun office and renewed his acquaintance with "the boys."

Mr. Frank Long, who formerly sang at the Cozy theater, is now singing in the Auditorium at Dayton, O., and is making a hit. He is called the "Kentucky Nightingale" and is pleasing hundreds with his singing. A Dayton paper in mentioning the Auditorium says: "Frank Long offers new picture ballads that complete an excellent bill." His many friends here will be pleased to learn of his success.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

under the auspices of the club was a musical treat and brought before the club for the first time this season, the three men who have done and are still doing so much to develop a taste for better music and more music in the community.

In spite of the arduous work Mr. Gilbert, Mr. Scott and Mr. Reddick have been doing the past winter they have come back to their home city bringing inspiration and new zeal into the musical circles and unselfishly lend their superior abilities during their vacation to the many demands made upon them by the home people.

The continuous applause of Thursday evening was an evidence of the interest, pride and appreciation the Paducah people have in the three men.

The Woman's club feels that it will but voice the sentiment of the community when it thanks these three young men, and especially Mr. Gilbert for the courtesy and interest which made possible the rare opportunity of hearing such beautiful music.

It has been said that our children are the index to the future; if this is true it is a matter of civic pride to know that Paducah can boast such attractive and talented young people as took part in the choruses. Mr. Gilbert found them most responsive to his instructions and faithful in attendance. The committee in charge found them a pleasure in every way being always courteous, polite and gentle, and a word of appreciation to the parents and teachers who have the training of them is not out of place. With Tiny Tim we say "God bless them every one," and thank them again for their music.

IS ON HIS FEET AGAIN.

Charles W. Morse Regains Some Lost Property.

New York, Aug. 9.—Charles W. Morse today admitted that since his release from the Tombs a few weeks ago, he had so far rehabilitated himself financially and commercially as to have recovered at least one of the numerous river and ocean steamboat lines of which he was at one time the owner.

The particular concern which is once more under his control is the Hudson Navigation company, whose fleet consists of the palatial steamboats Charles W. Morse and Adriatic, as well as three other boats that ply between this city and Albany.

"Do you hope to regain your former position as a man of millions and affairs" was asked.

"The future alone can tell that," said Mr. Morse smilingly, "but I am not without what the old hymn books used to call 'a sure and certain hope' that I may eventually recover lost ground."

VIOLATED OPTION LAW.

Negroes Who Chartered Three States Gets Into Trouble.

Calro, Ill., Aug. 9.—The steamer Three States was involved in trouble at Hickman Saturday, because of the action of some negroes who had chartered her for an excursion and who sold intoxicating liquors to citizens there while the boat lay in port. Several negroes were arrested and the boat was held. One of the negroes Jim Bonduant, was released on a cash bond, and three others were held in default of bail. The boat returned to Calro yesterday morning.

PRINTERS GO OUT AT STOCKHOLM

NEWSPAPERS ARE PUBLISHING MERE BULLETINS.

Two Regiments of Soldiers Mutiny and Worse Trouble is Feared.

Any Time.

STRIKERS ARE QUARRELING

Stockholm, Aug. 9.—The city is without newspapers today as the result of the printers' strike. Most newspaper offices are issuing small bulletins set up by "cubs" not belonging to the union. Strikers believe the suspension of newspapers will help force arbitration by employers for which King Gustav is now working. Several factories are resuming work. Cars are running almost on schedule time. Strikers are trying to desert and leaders are trying to prevent it. There were several clashes among strikers themselves.

Swedish Troops Mutiny.

Stockholm, Aug. 9.—Swedish troops in the northern part of the country have mutined and the government is much concerned. Two regiments, one at Falun and the other at Sollefteå are "affected." They are stranded in the northern country where the labor disturbance first broke out in the timber trade and the government has been haunted by the fear that the soldiers' sympathies were with the strikers. The mutinous troops have been confined to their barracks.

The executive committee of the Swedish union, at a meeting held yesterday, decided to call out the printers throughout the kingdom. Many of the grave diggers have defied the order of their labor union to return to work and have rejoined the strikers.

The food situation in Stockholm shows no improvement today and the strike continues. The hopes of yesterday that the men would withdraw from their extreme attitude have not been fulfilled.

Train Fired Upon.

A railway train was fired upon in the suburbs Sunday afternoon, but no one was injured.

The government has published a proclamation enjoining both sides to the dispute to avoid further violations of the contracts. After regretting that the government's offer of mediation had not been accepted the proclamation expresses the hope that leaders themselves would settle all differences.

The bakeries declare that the bread supply is exhausted. The farm laborers' union announced today that its 7,000 members would strike as soon as the rye crop is ready for harvesting.

Horrible Wreck in France.

Paris, Aug. 9.—Thirteen were killed and 22 injured, several fatally in a collision between an interurban car and a freight car at Long Jumeau. The interurban was torn to pieces and the dead and injured scattered along the track for a hundred feet. It was caused by the motorman failing to see the stop signal.

NEW CROP IN GOOD SHAPE.

Better Tone Noted in Dark Tobacco Market Here This Week.

Louisville, Aug. 9.—Weather conditions in the tobacco belt continue favorable. The growing crop is said to be doing exceptionally well. There was a fairly good market for dark tobacco on the local breaks this week, but the burley market was small and lacked feature. Prices on the dark tobacco were generally higher. The Italian Regie had 650 hogheads of dark tobacco sampled during the week.

Street Cars Collide.

St. Louis, Aug. 9.—In a rear end collision of two crowded street cars near Suburban Garden, seven persons were hurt, one seriously.

AT THE CHURCHES

Thomson made the point that when a man is in normal relationship to mankind, he is in a right relationship to God, and conversely, unless he is in a right relationship to God, he cannot be in normal relationship to his fellowmen. He compared sin to an anaesthetic, from the stupefying effects of which man must awake to be right with good and normal in his human relationship. He must "come to himself."

In the evening he preached on Paul's letter to Timothy: "I have fought a good fight; I have finished my course; I have kept the faith."

T. J. Owen's Vacation.

The Rev. T. J. Owen lectured at the Benton Methodist church Sunday morning, and in the afternoon at church Grove, where he baptized a number and raised a balance due on the pastor's salary. The Rev. Mr. Owen is on his vacation and may lecture at Bandana, Arlington and other places west of here.

There was an increased attendance at the Tenth Street Christian Sunday school and one addition to the church. The Rev. Mr. Colton South, Kentucky evangelist, preached a powerful sermon at 11 o'clock.

The services at the First Baptist church were excellent and the Rev. Dr. Dodd's sermons were enjoyed by large congregations. The Hagan Male Quartette furnished the music at both services and proved an enjoyable treat to all members.

At the Second Baptist church the Rev. G. B. Smalley's sermons were appreciated by large crowds both morning and evening. His sermon on "Heaven" was very interesting. The Rev. Mr. Smalley pointed out how Heaven was like a country home and a city. There were three professions yesterday.

The services at the Twelfth Street Baptist church were all well attended and the Rev. Mr. Clark's sermon: "On the Solid Rock" was especially interesting.

In the absence of the Rev. C. E. Jackson the Rev. Mr. Holden filled the pulpit at the Tenth Street Christian church, and the members were greatly pleased with his sermons. One man was baptized yesterday.

Well attended services were held at the Third Street Methodist church yesterday. The Rev. Thomas Woodridge preached an excellent sermon. The Rev. E. T. Lewis filled his pulpit at the Mechanicsburg Methodist church yesterday and preached two interesting sermons. The attendance was excellent.

At the German Lutheran church yesterday the Rev. William Grother preached two excellent sermons. His morning discourse on "The Unfaithful Steward," was replete with incidents applicable to human life.

The evening services at the German Evangelical church were well attended and a good sermon was preached. No morning service was held. There will be no more services during August, while Dr. Bourquin is on his vacation.

The Rev. E. C. McAllister filled the pulpit at the Grace Episcopal church yesterday and preached a good sermon. He also preached at the Good Shepherd House and a large congregation was present to hear him.

Miss Louvina Wilson, of Louisville, a missionary worker, spoke at the Cumberland Presbyterian church yesterday and her discourse was well received. The Rev. Mr. Fooks preached in the evening.

Rev. J. W. Naylor, who is conducting the protracted meeting at McKendree reports that the meeting is progressing with great success. Large crowds have been present at all the services and great enthusiasm manifested. More than 200 people have pledged themselves to lead a better life.

GOULD HAD AFFINITY.

Wife Will Apply for a Decree of Absolute Divorce.

New York, Aug. 9.—The secrets of the Frank J. Gould case were bared very suddenly today and with them came the information that within the next few days Helen Kelly Gould, wife of the millionaire, will apply to the courts for a final decree of absolute divorce from her husband.

That Frank J. Gould conducted himself immorally at the Shoreham hotel, at No. 308 West Fifty-eighth street, with an English actress named Rose Winter.

The stage of the river this morning at 7 o'clock was 10.4, a rise of 3 of a foot since 7 o'clock Sunday morning. The river will continue rising. Weather clear.

ARRIVALS—Dick Fowler from Cairo tonight at 8:30 o'clock; Golden Rod from upper Ohio at noon yesterday; City of Saltillo from Tennessee river tonight; J. B. Richardson from Nashville this morning; Ohio from Golconda this morning at 10 o'clock; Joe Fowler from Evansville at 8 o'clock last night; Charles Turner from Helena, Ark., yesterday at noon; Bettie Owen from Brookport and regular Illinois landings this morning and afternoon; George Cowling from Metropolis this morning and afternoon on time; Clyde from Waterloo, Ala., this afternoon or tonight.

DEPARTURES—Dick Fowler for Cairo at 8 o'clock this morning; J. B. Richardson for Clarksville this afternoon; Joe Fowler for Evansville this morning at 11 o'clock; Ohio for Golconda this afternoon at 2 o'clock; Clyde for the lower Ohio immediately after arrival; City of Saltillo for St. Louis and all way landings immediately after transacting business at the wharfbank; George Cowling for Metropolis this morning and afternoon on time; Bettie Owen from Brookport and regular Illinois landings this morning and afternoon on time.

The Dick Fowler ran a double excursion yesterday. She took a crowd out of Paducah leaving at 9 o'clock in the morning and on reaching Cairo she carried out about 200 people ten miles up the Mississippi river, leaving there at 2 p. m. and returning at 4:30. She then left for Paducah, arriving at 10:30 o'clock last night.

The Bettie Owen carried a large crowd of excursionists from here to Brookport and the lower Ohio yesterday, leaving at 2 p. m. and returning at 6 p. m.

The United States steamer Golden Rod arrived here yesterday at noon from the upper Ohio. It was found that she had a cracked shaft and may have to be up for repairs. She is trimming out underbrush and repairing the government lights and not doing any supplying. She will probably go to Cairo and return here and go up the Tennessee.

The harbor boat Harth of the West Kentucky Coal company left last night for Point Pleasant, Mo., to lighten a barge of coal which the tow boat Charles Turner grounded on a sand bar. The river is falling and the barge will be pulled off before it is left out of the water.

The towboat Charles Turner returned at noon yesterday from Helena Ark., after delivering the dry docks formerly of this port.

Ross Rutter, head clerk on the John S. Hopkins, has resigned.

Captain Burress and the crew of the towboat Reaper, of the West Kentucky Coal company, returned yesterday from Memphis, where the boat is laid up. The crew will take the Harvester south probably tomorrow with a tow of coal.

The Joe Fowler had a big list of passengers today when she left, including a number of round trippers.

The Chattanooga will arrive tomorrow afternoon or night from Evansville being the packet for that day.

The J. B. Richardson returns from Clarksville Wednesday morning and leaves at noon for Nashville.

The Clyde will go to Commerce, Mo. after a load of wheat when she arrives and return here tomorrow night, leaving for a return trip to the Tennessee at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening.

L. W. Key Resigns as Postmaster. Mayfield, Ky., Aug. 9.—L. W. Key, for several years postmaster of this city, a prominent politician and one of the best known business men of the state, forwarded his resignation papers as postmaster to the Washington authorities. J. B. Mason, his assistant, will succeed him temporarily.

The resignation of Mr. Key came at the request of W. H. Gregory, of Louisville, president of the Citizens' Life Insurance company, of which Mr. Key is treasurer, as it has been known in this city for some time that Mr. Gregory was urging Mr. Key to resign his position as postmaster and to assume active work in connection with his duties as treasurer of the Citizens' Life.

Mr. Key is widely known throughout this entire section of the country, and the news that he is to give up his residence in this city will be received with regret.

Since the announcement that a giant $10,000,000 insurance company had been formed by Mr. Gregory and his associates it had been intimated that Mr. Key's services would be called upon in the organization of the concern. It was stated here tonight that Mr. Key will receive a high office in the management of the new company formed by President Gregory.

FOUR ARRESTED FOR ROBBERIES SATURDAY NIGHT

In the arrest of four negroes early Sunday morning the police believe they have the thieves, who have been making wholesale raids on groceries and saloons the past few days.

They are Ernest Smith, Charles Reed, Ordenia Reed and Ephraim Story, the first two being caught red-handed in an alley near Eighth and Harris streets. The quartette will be heard in police court Thursday. One warrant has been issued against all four for breaking into the grocery of Sam Bryant, Eighth and Humboldt streets, Wednesday night and taking away a large supply of groceries and other property. Charles Reed and Ernest Smith are charged with breaking into J. L. Potter's saloon, Eighth and Harris streets Saturday night.

The latter were captured about 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning by Patrolman Hessian and had in their possession a basket containing whiskey, brandy, shoe strings and other property, stolen from Potter's. The patrol wagon was sent after them and Patrolman Terrell suspecting them of the robbery of Bryant's store also gained a confession from them and a supply of ham, bacon, tobacco and other things was located in a coal house in the alley near the saloon. It is believed that all four worked together in the robberies. In both instances they entered by means of a skeleton key and worked quietly. This is the second robbery at Bryant's grocery. Warrants, charging all with housebreaking, were sworn out. Ordenia Reed and Ephraim Story were captured by Patrolman Doyle and Whittemore Sunday morning.

INSTITUTE

IS IN SESSION AT COURT HOUSE TODAY.

Excellent Program Under Direction of Professor Coates—44 Are Present.

The McCracken County's School Teachers annual institute began this morning at 9 o'clock at the county court house. It is under the direction of Prof. T. J. Coates, superintendent of the public schools of Richmond. This morning was devoted largely to organization.

Supt. S. J. Billington, of the county schools, was chosen president for the institute and Prof. L. W. Feezor was selected vice president. Miss Maggie Harrison was made secretary. The enrollment this morning showed an attendance of 46 teachers. After the organization and a short talk from Superintendent Billington other speeches were made by C. E. Morris representing the American Book company, and Prof. W. H. Sugg, principal of the Paducah High school.

This afternoon the regular work was taken up, including talks on school discipline, geography, history and reading. The committee on resolutions probably will be appointed this afternoon and other committees no program committee is to be appointed, owing to this being eliminated from the regular business this year.

The institute will be in session for five days and many things of interest will come up for discussion. Professor Coates is an excellent speaker and instructor. A piano has been provided and singing will be indulged in as a regular part of the program.

Brookport, Ill., Aug. 9. (Special.)—Incorporation papers were received here Saturday, giving the state's permission to begin working for subscriptions forthwith for the survey, etc., of the proposed interurban from Golconda, via New Liberty, Hamlettsburg, Unionville, Brookport, Metropolis to Joppa; and a meeting of the directors has been called for Tuesday afternoon in the office of the Brookport National bank, when action will be taken leading up to immediate active work.

People east of here are interested in the project, and it is believed that the raising of the money necessary for the completion of the line will be a comparatively easy task. Paducah, which will be greatly benefited by this line, will be asked to assist largely in the undertaking, and a matter of $15,000 has already been volunteered by an Indiana concern and Cairo is reaching out her hands toward us asking that we extend our line on down to them. It is believed that they will go something between $25,000 and $50,000—possibly even more. Their Commercial club is at work.

American Engineering company men will be here the latter part of the week, and it is generally understood they are interested to the extent to which the public have not been let into as yet; after we have a few good subscriptions taken, we will have something which they can take up and do business upon.

C. L. Robertson one of the executive committee of the Ohio Valley Traction company, who represents Paducah's side of the proposition, is very enthusiastic over the whole matter, and is working hard to get Paducah interests lined up.

More people besides the American Engineering company are looking toward Brookport with greedy eyes, as evidenced by a communication handed to the Sun correspondent here this morning from the Carmi, Burnt Prairie, Fairfield Traction company—written to one of the most prominent and influential men of the "Goose-neck" of southern Pope county.

Experiment Station.

Dr. C. G. Hopkins and Prof. J. E. Readheimer, of the University of Illinois, are here looking over the situation with a view of establishing an experiment station here; and they in company with R. Byrd Leeper, of Unionville, and S. J. Brown, of this city, drove over the section near New Liberty yesterday. This morning they are driving out again to view two tracks, one near Unionville and one just north of Brookport, both of which Dr. Hopkins says are suitable for use. They purpose to secure 10 acres, which will have to be deeded to the state, and will undertake to cultivate even 20 acres. This day's work will determine the location.

AMERICAN WOMEN SLOW.

Countess Wolfgang Says America Is Not Up to Date in Smoking Customs.

"It is absurd that you don't allow women to smoke in your hotels," said the Countess Wolfgang, of Castell-Rudenhansen, who is stopping at the Hotel St. Regis. "Such a privilege is not denied women in Europe. Oh, of course, one may smoke in her own room, as the manager will politely tell you, but I mean in the dining rooms. What is there objectionable if a woman smokes her cigarette after meals at the table? In this respect the American women are not up to date."

The countess and her husband, Count Wolfgang, of Castell-Rudenhansen, are just completing a tour around the world. They only stopped in New York for a few days, and left Tuesday on the Kronprinz Wilhelm for Germany, whence they will go to their castle in Bavaria.

"In Germany," explained the countess, "we try to please our American and foreign travelers. I know that many American women smoke in public dining rooms when they are abroad, and it is surprising that they are not allowed to do the same at home. But, despite the fact that I had to give up my cigarette after meals, I enjoyed my visit to America."

The Countess Castell-Rudenhansen was very enthusiastic over her first visit to this country. She expressed particular interest in the American women and their deep concern in the affairs of the day, especially as pertaining to aeronautics and the suffrage movement.

"It must be fine to sail through the air in an airship," said the countess, "I expect to have my first ride in a loftship, as we call them, when I get back to Germany. I notice that the American women have even planned to organize aero clubs for women. We, too, are deeply interested in the aviation problems of the day. We look forward to the successful conquest of aerial navigation, only from a practical standpoint, and as affording a new field for pleasure. I feel sure that I will enjoy my first flight."—New York Telegram.

Once Great Shortstop III.

Denver, Col., Aug. 9.—Herman Long, the veteran shortstop of the Boston National League, and a member of the Boston team under the management of the late Frank Selee, is seriously ill in Denver. Long came to Denver several months ago because of lung troubles.

TAFT SPENT A LAZY SUNDAY

WENT TO CHURCH, READ IN THE AFTERNOON.

Some Official Matters Will Be Attended to This Week, Among Them Census Appointments.

HAS A COMMENDABLE PLAN

Dover, Aug. 9.—Beverly is almost as dry as Washington but President Taft spent a lazy Sunday. In the morning, with his daughter, he attended the Unitarian church, and in the afternoon sat on the veranda overlooking the ocean and read "The Greatness and Decline of Rome," by the historian, Ferrero, who spent a week at the white house with Roosevelt. At sunset the president took a long motor ride with his wife. President Taft will have considerable official business this week. He will dispose of the matter of the census supervisors throughout the country; Secretary Nagel and director of the census Durand are coming to Beverly the latter part of the week with a long list of names. By the time they leave the president hopes to announce his position.

The president is fired on the policy of census appointments in the south. In states which are solidly Democratic he divided the appointments equally among Democrats and Republicans and insists that the appointee be not active partisans, but capable men.

From the "solid south" the president picked North Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky and Missouri as debatable states and will treat them on the same footing as the northern states, giving all census jobs to Republicans. He insists, however, on the same standard of efficiency and character in these states. The states in which a division between Democrats and Republicans will be made are: Virginia, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas. The president has decided to make no appointments of judges of the newly authorized customs court, congress having failed to make appropriation for judges or other officials. If the president should appoint judges now he will have to fix their salaries. Taft turned over to Secretary MacVeagh the task of selecting five members of the tariff committee. These experts are intended primarily to assist the president with information and inquiries as to the administration of the maximum and minimum provision.

Taft is expected to do work on his message to congress until he returns to Washington but has a general outline of the message in mind, while the members of the cabinet are preparing detailed reports.

Having tried the Myopia Links the president will play 18 holes over the course of the Essex Country club today. John Hays Hammond will have a hand in the game.

OWES HER LIFE TO

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Vienna, W. Va.—"I feel that I owe the last ten years of my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Eleven years ago I was a walking shadow. I had been under the doctor's care but got no relief. My husband persuaded me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it worked like a charm. It relieved all my pains and misery. I advise all suffering women to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. EMMA WELTON, Vienna, W. Va.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases of any similar medicine in the country, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaints, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration. Every such suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

MUTILATED BODY OF WOMAN FOUND

HAD EVIDENTLY BEEN ASSAULTED AND MURDERED.

Mystery in Michigan—Italians in That Particular Vicinity Have Been Annoying Women.

AND THEY ARE SUSPECTED

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 9.—The mutilated body of a woman about 35 years of age was found in a clump of underbrush at Hamtramck, this county. The woman was apparently assaulted and killed.

The skull was crushed and the face and body covered with bruises. The clothing was disarranged. The victim's purse was torn open and nothing left which would serve to identify the body. The ground for yards about was torn up, and bits of flesh in the woman's finger nails indicate that she made a fight.

The land whereon the body was found is owned by an Italian, Sierrra Marke, who lately entertained many of his countrymen. No suspicion is attached to Marke, but officers investigating reports that women have been annoyed recently by some of Marke's guests the last week or two. One woman says she was accosted near where the body was found a week ago by a man who she thought was an Italian. He proposed that she accompany him into the underbrush, and the woman fled.

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE WEEK

PRESIDENT'S MOVEMENTS WILL COMMAND POPULAR INTEREST

Sutton Inquiry Begins Again Today and Sensation May Develop—Thaw Awaits Decision.

DUE THIS COMING THURSDAY

Washington, Aug. 9.—Although the scene of his activities has shifted to Beverly, Taft is still likely to furnish some of the news of the week. The president has some "unfinished business," the disposition of which will be of no more or less interest, while his efforts of relaxation will be followed with popular concern.

Harry Thaw will again figure in the headlines of the newspapers. Justice Mills is expected to announce Thursday whether Thaw will be set at liberty.

The court of inquiry which is investigating the death of Lieutenant Sutton, of Annapolis, reopened its session today. The letters written by the lieutenant's mother preceding the inquiry, figured in the opening.

One of the most important meetings of the week will be the six days' session of the National Irrigation Congress, opening at Spokane, Washington, today. The annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will be on all week at Salt Lake City.

Other scheduled gatherings are: Today, at St. Joseph, Mo., International Typographical union.

Wednesday, at Lansing, Mich., National Firemen's association.

Thursday, at Kansas City, International Stereotypers and Electrotypers union.

Saturday, at Seattle, prison association.

The action of Japan in commencing the construction of Antung-Mukden railroad despite the protests of China will be the feature of the far eastern news owing to the possibility of an armed clash over Japan's determination to broaden and improve the line.

The strike movement in Sweden has almost the entire country in its grip and the grievances of the men are so serious that there is little likelihood of their being compromised speedily. The most serious complication is the mutiny of two Swedish regiments in northern Sweden.

While Spain is apparently calmed, the situation in Morocco is still serious. Spain's assembling reinforcements to carry out her purposes in Africa, and the Moors are gathering to resist Spain's advance.

GRAY HAIRS BANISHED.

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark, glossy hair at the age of seventy-five, while our mothers have white hair before they are fifty. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy and gradually restored the natural color. One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days on account of its souring quickly. This objection has been overcome, and by asking almost any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow. It is sold by all druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price. For sale and recommended by W. J. Gilbert.

Fruits at Their Best

Fruits are always wholesome and delightfully refreshing, but, when they are such fine, sound beauties as we now display, they are doubly tempting. Wise people know, too, that the citrus fruits are splendid tonic for the over-dainty stomach these days.

We have lots of steady customers for specially prepared baskets of fruits—an assortment of your own selection, at moderate prices. Ask about them they're better than a box of candy, lots better.

CALIFORNIAN ROBIN HOOD

Believes in the Doctrine of Common Ownership of Property.

In the recent arrest by rangers of the Santa Barbara forest of George Griffin, the settlers have been relieved of a second Robin Hood, says the San Francisco Chronicle. Griffin was apprehended for numerous thefts committed by him from camps located in the interior of the mountains. The story of his experiences prior to his arrest has in it many of the elements of the dramatic, and the authorities before whom he was brought consider him a sort of enigma. Griffin appeared in Santa Barbara a short time ago, having walked all the way from Portland. According to his statements, he sought work in Santa Barbara, but unsuccessfully, and finally took to the mountains. He is a socialist and believes in the doctrine of common ownership of property, and upon approaching the uninhabited San Marcus club house felt no hesitancy in breaking in and helping himself to a number of rifles and an abundant supply of ammunition. Weighted down by his load of stolen property he tramped scores of miles into the interior fastnesses of the mountains, living principally upon such game as could be brought down with one of his numerous guns. During the course of his tramp he came upon the cabin of Forest Ranger Dinmore and appropriated to his own use such articles as struck his fancy before continuing his wild tramp onward. Upon discovering his loss, Ranger Dinmore and Ranger Libbey started in pursuit, and knowing that their quarry was heavily armed and likely to resist arrest, they disguised themselves as vaqueros and came upon him from the rear, and before he was aware of their presence they had him covered.

Although of slight build and weighing but 100 pounds, Griffin, during the course of his tramp over the rough mountains, carried a pack weighing 150 pounds and endured all sorts of hardships, which resulted in practically denuding him of clothing and covering his body with numerous scars where he had come in contact with the stiff brush and sharp stones. When found he was almost starved and his wild flight had left him in a precarious condition. In spite of the seriousness of his position, Griffin seemed to take the matter lightly, worried not at all for his future. He refuses to divulge any information regarding his history, and his strange actions have made his arrest one of more than ordinary interest.

CONDITIONS AS CLEWS SEES THEM

CROP OUTLOOK FAVORABLE, EXCEPT AS TO COTTON.

Call Money Easy, But Time Loans Growing a Bit Stiffer in the East.

AS TO TRADE AND INDUSTRY

New York, Aug. 9. (Special.)—The New York market continues under control of the big operators. What with their desire to sustain the market in order to dispose of their surplus holdings and what with the necessity of leading bankers keeping the market in good condition for the large new security issues contemplated during the next two or three months, there was little chance for any important downward reaction in the absence of unfavorable news. Of the latter there was practically none.

The crop outlook is now the most important factor in the general situation. As anticipated, the government cotton report was unfavorable, and had a marked effect upon the price of that staple. While some improvement is possible in the condition of the plant during the remainder of the season, it is practically a foregone conclusion that the cotton crop will be a short one and that high prices must be expected this season. This means good times for sections where the injury was slight and vice versa for sections where the injury was great. It is questionable, however, if there will be any extraordinary scarcity of cotton, for the reason that many of the European mills are running upon short time and Europe is already possessed of a larger supply of raw cotton than a year ago. As for the grain crops, their outlook continues satisfactory. July and August are frequently months of deterioration and it is quite possible that the government report expected Monday will show a slightly lower percentage of condition than a month ago. It cannot be claimed, however, that there is any great shortage of grain; in fact, the corn crop promises to be the largest on record and prices for all agricultural products are known to be exceptionally profitable. For this reason there is an optimistic feeling throughout the entire grain belt, both merchants and bankers in those sections of the country anticipating with much confidence a good autumn trade. The agricultural outlook as a whole is beyond question encouraging because of the profitable basis upon which it is at present working.

Industrials.
In the industrial field signs of recuperation continue to multiply. As said in previous advices, the volume of production in most industries is not yet equal to that existing before the panic; yet the tendency is towards a steady increase of output, and fortunately there is a brisk demand for all the products of our mills, both present and prospective. The iron industry continues very active, there being a rush of orders for nearly all classes of steel products, while the pig iron output, which last month was at the rate of 25,000,000 tons, is rapidly approaching record-breaking proportions. The cotton industry continues quite active, though somewhat handicapped by the high price of the raw material. There is, however, an entire absence of oversupply, and a brisk demand for cotton goods is reported in all of the Western markets. The only branch of this important industry at present suffering is the export trade, which naturally feels the effect of high prices. In the woolen business there is much activity; the mills are well sold up and prices are firm, largely owing to the advance and activity in wool, which is comparatively scarce. Only one important market has lagged behind, and that has been copper. The domestic demand for this article is now improving in common with other metals, and better prices would have been realized no doubt were it not for the fact that production is still increasing faster than consumption and running at record-breaking figures. Mercantile prospects are excellent and business men generally are not only anticipating a good fall trade, but are making preparations accordingly.

Call Money.
Call money continues plentiful and easy, while time money is gradually hardening and still better rates are anticipated during the next two or three months. This is due to the revival of business activities and preparations for financing the crops. The west will undoubtedly need some assistance from this center for the latter purpose, and the employment of funds in that capacity will, of course, tend to firm rates. The effect of firmer time money upon the stock market is somewhat problematical. If stocks are to be pushed to a higher point the natural result will be to drive money out of stocks into fields where it can secure better returns, although high rates for money and an active bull stock market are not infrequently seen together. As a result of firmer money there have been some liberal offerings of finance and other bills against American securities abroad.

There has also been a somewhat better supply of commercial bills in anticipation of cotton and grain shipments. The recent weakness in exchange has, of course, put an effectual stoppage upon gold exports, and later on a considerable increase in security bills is anticipated in connection with forthcoming security issues.

International.
The international situation is better than a week ago owing to abatement of the troubles in Spain. These now seem to be over and are not likely to cause any difficulty in the foreign money markets, although Paris, which represents large holdings of Spanish securities, showed some temporary weakness when the crisis was at its height. Now that the tariff is settled the sentimental effect will prove beneficial, although practically the tariff makes no difference whatever to business in general. No very important changes have been made either downwards or upwards, the net result of the new bill being practically a victory for the "stand-patters." For some time past our manufacturing interests recognized that they had but little to fear from any downward revision, and have consequently gone ahead with little regard to the tariff situation. For this reason the new tariff will have little influence upon general business other than the sentimental effect of relief from agitation. Such troubles as come from the new measure will be chiefly those relating to its administration. Stock market operations must still be conducted with great precaution. It is not impossible that prices may be forced to a still higher point, but it should be recognized that values are already unwarrantably high and that the big holders are quietly distributing their surplus upon every advance. The activity and weakness of the market whenever good news is forthcoming—signing the tariff bill, for instance—are highly suggestive. The outlook is certainly encouraging and prevailing optimism cannot be ignored, yet all the good features discernible have been pretty well discounted. A distributive market, such as the present one appears to be, holds many opportunities for the nimble operator for quick in and out trading. It is reasonable to assume that the tactics of the past (such as marking up sharply first one stock and then another) will again be used in an endeavor to aid, as well as disguise, the liquidation which will be attempted in other departments of the list. Quick in and out operations on the long side, however, should be entered into with care, as we are still of the opinion that clam digging is unprofitable at high tide.

BANDY EPITHETS

CONSIDER HONOR BOARD TO PREVENT BLOODSHED.

Controversy Arose Over Editorial in Constitution Attacking Administration of Smith.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 7.—The controversy which has been raging between Editor Clark Howell, of the Constitution, and Editor Dick Gray, of the Journal, has reached a point that seems to make a personal encounter inevitable. The controversy has been going on for nearly a week with increasing bitterness and today the two editors exchanged epithets which the general public think will lead to bloodshed. Editor Gray, referring to Editor Howell, says this afternoon: "Caught red-handed as a 'fakir,' convicted of stupidity which cannot distinguish between public affairs which are legitimate and private affairs which are not legitimate subjects of controversy, and perverting even those private affairs with wilful mendacity, he exposes his true character to the people of Georgia as a fool, a scoundrel and a liar." Choice Epithets. "Ripped and riven to his sawdust heart, this stuffed rag baby of Georgia in journalism is flung to the congenial fellowship of the vermin, more loathsome in this new light upon his character than ever before in all his loathsome career." Replying, Editor Howell tomorrow morning will say to Editor Gray: "You're another," is the reply of the editor of the Atlanta Journal who has been so openly branded in these columns as a "fish-monger," a "gutter-snipe," a "brute and a bully." A thug so insensible to gentility or refinement as not to know the amenities of gentlemanly discussion, a Gov. Hoke Smith and his administration, hopeless as to whom truth and hon-

CABINET OFFICERS LEAVE WASHINGTON

HITCHCOCK ALONE WILL REMAIN AT CAPITAL.

Nagel Will Visit St. Louis—Cannon Leaves for Danville—Others Go Home.

CHIEF CLERKS ARE TO RULE

Washington, Aug. 9.—With President Taft at Beverly, Mass., and most of the cabinet officers gone or about to go away for the summer the "second tier" of officials, or what is known as the permanent government is in charge of affairs in Washington. Things will run on as smoothly as they always do when the heads of the departments go off the job during the heated period. Two members of the cabinet are charged with certain responsibilities under the terms of the new tariff law and from time to time during the summer it may be necessary for them to return to Washington. These are Mr. Knox, secretary of state, and Mr. MacVeagh, secretary of the treasury.

Mr. Knox has left for his country place at Valley Forge, Pa., where he will spend a short time playing golf on his own links and driving some of his thoroughbreds.

Secretaries Ballinger and Dickinson are already enjoying their vacation. Ballinger has been in the west for some time.

Attorney General Wickersham will not get much of a vacation this year. He has been charged with the duty of preparing certain data to be used in the president's message to congress at the December session. The attorney general will spend as much time as possible at his Long Island home, vibrating between that place and Beverly and Washington.

MacVeagh Leaves Monday.

Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh will recuperate at his summer home at Dublin Home, N. M., while Secretary of the Navy Meyer will spend his vacation at Hamilton, Mass., which is not far removed from Beverly.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson will go to Iowa for a brief sojourn on his farm there, but in accordance with his custom, he will spend most of the summer at his desk in the department.

Secretary Nagel, of the department of commerce and labor, has gone to his summer home at Marion, Mass. He will remain there only a week returning then to continue the work of reorganization in his department. He will then go to Marion, and will visit his old home in St. Louis before returning to take up the winter's work here.

From present indications Postmaster General Hitchcock will be selected to sit on the lid. If so he will remain at the capital until early fall. Vice President Sherman is at his home in Utica, N. Y.

Paducah, Ky., July 3, 1909.

I can truly and with confidence assure any one who uses it that it will not disappoint them in any case of Rheumatism or Torpid Liver. Further than this, I have not tried it, hence this deponent sayeth no further.

or are but empty words—that further characterization but would exhaust the vocabulary of disgust and contempt. "So what's the use of further cornering a polecat?"

"The one instinct of the coward creature opens upon his adversary the only avenue of available escape and fairly caught and chastised, he leaves the captor no trophy of the chase but a stench upon his raiment. "But this controversy has not been without avail if it has put this venomous snake on notice that he shall not hereafter let personal attack take the place of legitimate discussion."

It is understood that so serious are the fears of bloodshed that it is proposed to form a board of honor to adjust the matter in an amicable way. The controversy began by an editorial in the Journal censuring the Constitution for criticising former Gov. Hoke Smith and his administration.

TO EAST ST. LOUIS

JOSEPH WALKER BECOMES MASTER MECHANIC THERE.

Well Known Official Here Wins Deserved Promotion In Railroad Service.

Joseph F. Walker, left last night for East St. Louis, Ill., where he has been promoted as master mechanic, succeeding W. McIntosh, who has been made master mechanic at Memphis. Mr. Walker has been general foreman of the locomotive department of the Illinois Central shops, and his appointment was a pleasant surprise to his many friends as he is one of the youngest master mechanics in the service of the road.

Walker began with the railroad twelve years ago when he started in as an apprentice. After serving his time he was made a foreman, and was put in charge of the repair shops at Princeton. Two years ago he was made general foreman of the Paducah shops. Mr. Walker is a Paducah boy, and in his new position will have charge of the equipment of the railroad from Brookport, Ill., to East St. Louis.

No permanent appointment has been made to succeed Walker. James Hofflich, who was appointed round house foreman recently is acting as general foreman, and it is tipped that he will get the job permanently. Fred Runge is acting as round house foreman, while George Kellar is gang foreman. Master Mechanic Nash is out of the city, but he is expected to make permanent appointments in a few days.

KING EDWARD

RULER WINS STAKE ON MORGAN'S TIP.

German and English Nobility in On Deal Sell at a Profit.

New York, Aug. 9.—Wall street after the close of business this afternoon buzzed with the report on a straight tip from J. Pierpont Morgan that King Edward of England had cleaned up more than $1,000,000 in United States Steel common in the past three months. The report originated in a quarter that gave it at least a semblance of plausibility, and investigators ran down some details which made it generally believed.

About four months ago, it will be recalled, King Edward entertained Mr. Morgan at Windsor Castle. Shortly after that visit, when United States Steel common was selling at from 50 to 52, an order came from England for the purchase of 50,000 shares at the market price.

Nobility Let in on Deal.
This deal, involving the expenditure of about $2,500,000, was made, the report current today states, on King Edward's account. The stock sold today at 76½. It is estimated that, less commissions and with dividends credited to the stock, King Edward is considerably more than $1,000,000 to the good. He could take that profit should he sell as today's quotations.

Members of the German nobility and some close friends of King Edward, it is said, also went into Steel common at the time of Mr. Morgan's visit to the king, and have sold out at a good profit. The stock has gone up 5 points in the past week and 36 points since February. It has sold as low as a fraction under $9 a share.

SOO REACHING OUT.

Plans Lines From Canada Wheat Fields to the Gulf.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—The Soo line is said to be planning to acquire a much larger portion of the tonnage between Chicago and the northwest than it now enjoys and also to obtain a line from the wheat fields of Canada to the Gulf of Mexico.

Through the medium of the Wisconsin Central, which the Soo line recently bought, the latter is said to be negotiating for the purchase of the Chicago, Milwaukee & Gary, recently sold to the St. Louis Union Trust company. This road is partly constructed and will, when completed, be an outer belt railway surrounding Chicago and touching more than a score of prosperous cities and nearby towns.

It is also stated that the Soo line is contemplating the construction of a short line to connect with the Louisville & Nashville at Evansville, Ind., and then enter into close traffic relations with the latter road for a through rate service. This move is said to be contemplated as a counter move to Hill's getting a line from the northwest to the gulf.

WINNERS IN THE SUN'S CONTEST

from friends throughout the entire western section of Kentucky, southern Illinois and parts of Tennessee—all of them demanding definite news upon the outcome of the contest. It took the final day to bring a full realization of the wide interest in the big affair. It was equal to election day. The Sun has never before seen anything like it.

Not before in the history of the Blue Grass State has a newspaper contest attracted the attention which this one has. It has been even a bigger affair and a greater success than The Sun and associate newspapers hoped for. It is not exaggeration to say that there is scarcely a person in all of western Kentucky who has not an interest of some kind in the outcome. All of them know about it; most of them have been backing some particular candidate.

And no newspaper ever had such candidates. It has indeed been a battle royal between the most popular and energetic people who ever contested for a newspaper prize. The liberality of the prize list attracted the best efforts of the best people, and the battle has been hard but fair. Every candidate has done his level best, and every one has been rewarded. True, some have been awarded prizes more handsome than others, but in every case the prize has suited the efforts put forth and there is little disappointment.

Everyone Satisfied.
The satisfactory way in which the contest passed off is most pleasing to The Sun. There was not the slightest intimation that any candidate had not gotten every vote coming to him or her, and the candidates know this and appreciate the efforts of The Sun to have an absolutely fair count.

Candidates have been expressing to The Sun today their thanks for the uniform kind treatment they have had during the contest. In turn The Sun wishes to thank them for their splendid effort in its behalf. It has tried to be liberal with them; they have done splendid work for it. This contest was a big undertaking. Ten thousand dollars is a lot of money for a newspaper to give away in prizes, but the size of the prize list was in keeping with the generous policy of The Sun, and it has no regrets now that its prizes have been awarded. In fact it feels proud of itself today—prouder than it has ever felt. The contest has made it a bigger and a better newspaper. Its field has been enlarged to include all of western Kentucky and sections of Illinois and Tennessee. Its name has become a watchword in sections that did not know it before.

The Sun's Greater Paper.
The immediate result of the contest has been the addition of nearly two thousand new subscribers. The strength of a newspaper is based on its circulation and The Sun today is a stronger paper by far than it was the day the contest opened. With its present circulation it ranks among the leading dailies of all Kentucky and it can no longer be disputed that it is the leader among the live papers of the western part of the state.

Again it can be repeated, the contest was a big undertaking, involving an amount of money that a paper twice its size would fear to put up, but it has been brought to a successful termination and The Sun is proud of the result. It congratulates all of its candidates and assures them that the association with them has been most pleasant. Its contest department is disorganized with regrets and the memories of pleasant associations are uppermost when it tells its candidates good bye.

ALMOST KILLED HORSE IN EFFORT TO SAVE THE MAN

To save the life of George Jacobs, a farmer, living four miles from Paducah on the Cairo road, the horse of Charles Smith was raced to Paducah yesterday morning at breakneck speed and came near dying as a result.

Jacobs was almost exhausted from the loss of blood, resulting from a wound caused by the accidental discharge of a rifle. He was taken to Dr. Jeff D. Robertson's office, where his injuries were dressed. He may lose his arm.

Jacobs with a number of friends started for Perkins creek to fish about 7 o'clock yesterday morning. He, with Charles Smith, was driving in a single seated buggy behind a wagon, containing a number of men. They stopped at what is known as Jacob's lake and John Smith, in the wagon, let his rifle fall to the bed of the wagon. It was discharged, the ball entering the left arm of Jacobs at the elbow, severing the artery. The horse was turned around and the injured man was brought to Paducah, arriving a few minutes afterwards. Although he may lose the arm, Dr. Robertson has hopes of saving it, if complications do not develop.

The horse was taken to the stables of the Palmer Transfer company, on Jefferson street, and after hard work was pulled out of danger. Jacobs was taken home Sunday afternoon. He is about 38 years old and has a wife and child. L. E. Ogilvie, a fireman at the Central fire station, is a nephew of Jacobs.

AFTER WHITLA REWARD.

Patrick O'Reilly's Claim to the Money Offered.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 9.—Patrick O'Reilly's claim offered by the state of Pennsylvania for the capture of the kidnapers of Billy Whitla was materially strengthened at the investigation here to determine to whom the money shall be paid.

Captain Shattuck, who with Detective Wood arrested James Boyle and his wife, admitted on the witness stand that the description of the kidnapers furnished him at the police station did not help him find the Boyle.

O'Reilly's description of the couple led to their arrest, he said. Captain Shattuck testified that O'Reilly showed him where the kidnapers were sitting in a room in his saloon, but requested that the arrest be made outside of his place of business. The arrest was effected on the outside.

Uncle Joe May Not Run.

Washington, Aug. 9.—Speaker Cannon left Washington for his home in Danville, Ill. He will spend most of the summer there. Uncle Joe is not worrying about reports that his race is run and that he stands no chance of re-election to the speakership. There is reason to believe that Mr. Cannon may not again be a candidate for renomination to the house. He has been in the game a long time, and is understood to have grown tired of the rough and tumble life in the house of representatives.

WANTS TARIFF REFORM.

The People Do Not Want Taxation of Capital.

London, Aug. 9.—The vexed question as to whether the house of lords would interfere with the budget which action the Radicals declare would be unconstitutional, appears to be settled by the pronouncement of Lord Lansdowne, leader of the opposition in the house of lords, in a speech at Calne, Wiltshire. Declaring the belief that the working classes desired tariff reform and not the taxation of property, Lord Lansdowne suggested that the house of commons may no longer represent the will of the people.

Those who advance the extreme claim in behalf of the commons, he said "declare that any measure, however violent, however little it may have been discussed in parliament and no matter whether it has been properly put before the people, must be passed over the heads of the house of lords."

"The scheme of the house of lords is much more moderate. We recognize that the will of the people must prevail in the end, but we demand that the people of the country be given full and sufficient opportunity to express that will with full and sufficient consideration of the subject."

"Upon this issue," declared Lord Lansdowne, "the lords are ready to try conclusions in the great struggle which must surely be upon us before very long. The lords are ready to meet their adversaries and will accept the verdict of the people."

DIAMONDS SCARCER.

New York Dealers in Gems Rush Buyers to Europe.

New York, Aug. 9.—The prosperity of the western farmer has depleted the stocks of diamonds in Maiden Lane, and the importing houses there have hurried their buyers across the ocean to purchase new supplies.

Dealers say that the lethargy which began in the jewelry trade two years ago has been followed of late by so great an increase in business that trade is taken by surprise, and that even the largest dealers are finding it difficult to fill orders for the higher grades of perfect stones.

Although $5,000,000 worth of gems were imported into this country last month, a quantity five times greater than the same month last year, the dealers have been unable to fill orders.

They say the orders from the middle west and the northwest are the most urgent, and as those regions are reporting record-breaking crops, the importers are of the opinion that the jewels, or at least many of them, are going to the farmers' wives.

Girl Commits Suicide.

Des Moines, Aug. 9.—Following a quarrel between her stepfather and her mother at Harvey, Iowa, today Helen Mattox, a beautiful fifteen-year-old girl, knelt in front of her mirror and shot herself through the heart with a rifle. The body was found by the stepfather. Her mother, when told of her daughter's suicide, became a maniac and attempted to kill herself with a razor.
